

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACT PLAN

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 9, 2020

Approved by Board of Judges for the Northern District of Florida May 15, 2018
Approved by Circuit Judicial Council for the Eleventh Circuit November 14, 2019

Maintained by
United States District Court
Northern District of Florida
Office of the Clerk
Jessica J. Lyublanovits

I. Authority

Under the Criminal Justice Act of 1964 (Criminal Justice Act), as amended, 18 U.S.C. § 3006A, and the Guide to Judiciary Policy (Guide), Volume 7A, the judges of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Florida unanimously adopt this Criminal Justice Act Plan (CJA Plan), as approved by the Circuit Judicial Council for the Eleventh Circuit, for the purpose of furnishing representation in federal court to any person who is financially unable to obtain adequate representation in accordance with the Criminal Justice Act of 1964.

II. Statement of Policy

A. Objectives

The objectives of this CJA Plan are:

1. to attain the goal of equal justice under the law for all persons;
2. to provide all eligible persons with timely appointed counsel services that are consistent with the best practices of the legal profession, are cost-effective, and protect the independence of the defense function so that the rights of individual defendants are safeguarded and enforced; and,
3. to particularize the requirements of the Criminal Justice Act, the United States of America Patriot Improvement and Reauthorization Act of 2005 (recodified at 18 U.S.C. § 3599). and the Guide, Vol. 7A, in a way that meets the needs of the Northern District of Florida.

This CJA Plan must therefore be administered so that those accused of a crime, or otherwise eligible for services under the Criminal Justice Act, will not be deprived of the right to counsel, or any element of representation necessary to an effective defense, due to lack of financial resources.

B. Compliance

1. The court, the clerk of court, the federal public defender organization, attorneys appointed through a bar association or legal aid agency, and private attorneys appointed under the Criminal Justice Act must comply with the requirements of the Guide, Vol. 7A, as approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States or its Committee on Defender Services, and this plan.

2. The court will ensure that a current copy of the CJA Plan is made available on the court's website and is provided to CJA counsel upon the attorney's designation as a member of the CJA panel of private attorneys (CJA Panel).

III. Definitions

A. Representation

"Representation" includes counsel and investigative, expert, and other services.

B. Appointed Attorney

"Appointed attorney" is an attorney designated to represent a financially eligible person under the Criminal Justice Act and this CJA Plan. Such attorneys include private attorneys, the federal public defender and staff attorneys of the federal public defender organization, and attorneys provided through a bar association or legal aid agency.

IV. Determination of Eligibility for CJA Representation

A. Subject Matter Eligibility

1. Mandatory

Representation must be provided for any financially eligible person who:

- a. is charged with a felony or with a Class A misdemeanor;
- b. is a juvenile alleged to have committed an act of juvenile delinquency as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 5031;
- c. is charged with a violation of probation, or faces a change of a term or condition of probation (unless the modification sought is favorable to the probationer and the government has not objected to the proposed change);
- d. is under arrest, when such representation is required by law;
- e. is entitled to appointment of counsel in parole proceedings;
- f. is charged with a violation of supervised release or faces modification, reduction, or enlargement of a condition, or extension or revocation of a term of supervised release;

 - k. is entitled to appointment of counsel under the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution; or,
 - l. faces loss of liberty in a case and federal law requires the appointment of counsel.
2. Discretionary

Whenever a district judge or magistrate judge determines that the interests of justice so require, representation may be provided for any financially eligible person who:

- a. is charged with a petty offense (Class B or C misdemeanor, or an infraction) for which a sentence to confinement is authorized;

3. Ancillary Matters

Representation may also be provided for financially eligible persons in ancillary matters appropriate to criminal proceedings under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(c). In determining whether representation in an ancillary matter is appropriate to criminal proceedings, the court should consider whether such representation is reasonably necessary:

- a. to protect a constitutional right;
- b. to contribute in some significant way to the defense of the principal criminal charge;
- c. to aid in preparation for the trial or disposition of the principal criminal charge;
- d. to enforce the terms of a plea agreements in the principal criminal charge;

- f. to effectuate the return of real or personal property belonging to the CJA client, which may be subject to a motion for return of property under Fed. R. Crim. P. 41(g), which property, if recovered by the client, may be considered for reimbursement under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(f).

B. Financial Eligibility

1. Presentation of Accused for Financial Eligibility Determination

- a. Duties of Law Enforcement
 - i. Upon arrest, and where the defendant has not retained or waived counsel, federal law enforcement officials must promptly notify, telephonically or electronically, the appropriate court personnel, who in turn will notify the federal public defender of the arrest of an individual in connection with a federal criminal charge.
 - ii. Employees of law enforcement agencies should not participate in the completion of the financial affidavit or seek to obtain information concerning financial eligibility from a person requesting the appointment of counsel.

b. Duties of the United States Attorney's Office

- i. Upon the return or unsealing of an indictment or the filing of a criminal information, and where the defendant has not retained or waived counsel, the United States Attorney or their delegate will promptly notify, telephonically or electronically, appropriate court personnel, who in turn will notify the federal public defender.
- ii. Upon issuance of a target letter, and where the individual has not retained or waived counsel, the United States Attorney or their delegate must promptly notify, telephonically or electronically, the appropriate court personnel, who in turn will notify the federal public defender, unless the United States Attorney's Office is aware of an actual or potential conflict with the target and the federal public defender, in which case they must promptly notify the court.
- iii. Employees of the United States Attorney's Office should not participate in the completion of the financial affidavit or seek to obtain information concerning financial eligibility form a person requesting the appointment of counsel.

c. Duties of the Federal Public Defender's Office

- i. In cases in which the federal public defender may be appointed, the office will:
 - a) immediately investigate and determine whether an actual or potential conflict exists; and
 - b) in the event of an actual or potential conflict, promptly notify the court to facilitate the timely appointment of other counsel.
- ii. When practicable, the federal public defender will discuss with the person who indicates that he or she is not financially able to secure representation the right to appointed counsel and, if appointment of counsel seems likely, assist in the completion of a financial affidavit (Form CJA 23).

d. Duties of the Pretrial Services Office

- i. Prior to the pretrial services interview, the pretrial services officer must ask the defendant whether he or she is financially able to retain counsel. In those cases, where a defendant indicates that he or she is unable to do so, the officer will notify the federal public defender.
- ii. Upon being notified, a lawyer from the federal public defender's office may offer advice to the person prior to the pretrial interview and may attend the interview for the purpose of providing assistance. If a representative from the federal public defender's office chooses to be present, he or she will report promptly so as to afford the pretrial services officer adequate time to complete the interview and prepare a report. Should no attorney be available from the federal public defender's office or should the office choose not to appear, the pretrial services officer may conduct the interview without their presence, absent a request for counsel.

2. Factual Determination of Financial Eligibility

- a. In every case where appointment of counsel is authorized under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a) and related statutes, the court must advise the person that he or she has a right to be represented by counsel throughout the case and that, if so desired, counsel will be appointed to represent the person if he or she is financially unable to obtain counsel.
- b. The determination of eligibility for representation under the Criminal Justice Act is a judicial function to be performed by the court after making appropriate inquiries concerning the person's financial eligibility. Other employees of the court may be designated to obtain or verify the facts relevant to the financial eligibility determination.
- c. In determining whether a person is "financially unable to obtain counsel," consideration should be given to the cost of providing the person and his or her dependents with the necessities of life, the cost of securing pretrial release, asset encumbrance, and the likely cost of retained counsel.

- d. The initial determination of eligibility must be made without regard to the financial ability of the person's family to retain counsel unless the person's family indicates willingness and ability to do so promptly.
- e. Any doubts about a person's eligibility should be resolved in the person's favor; erroneous determinations of eligibility may be corrected at a later time.
- f. Relevant information bearing on the person's financial eligibility should be reflected on a financial affidavit (Form CJA 23).
- g. If at any time after the appointment of counsel a judge finds that a person provided representation is financially able to obtain counsel or make partial payment for the representation, the judge may terminate the appointment of counsel or direct that any funds available to the defendant be paid as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(f).
- h. If at any stage of the proceedings a judge finds that a person is no longer financially able to pay retained counsel, counsel may be appointed in accordance with the provisions set forth in this plan.

V. Timely Appointment of Counsel

A. Timing of Appointment

Counsel must be provided to eligible persons as soon as feasible in the following circumstances, whichever occurs earliest:

1. after they are taken into custody;
2. when they appear before a magistrate judge or district judge;
3. when they are formally charged, or notified of charges if formal charges are sealed; or,
4. when a magistrate judge or district judge otherwise considers appointment of counsel appropriate under the Criminal Justice Act and related statutes.

B. Court's Responsibility

The court, in cooperation with the federal public defender and the United States Attorney, will make such arrangements with federal, state, and local investigative and police agencies as will ensure timely appointment of counsel.

C. Pretrial Service Interview

The defendant has a right to be represented by counsel during the pretrial services interview, and the pretrial services officer will advise the defendant of that right. If the defendant desires representation and the federal public defender is unavailable, the pretrial services officer will contact the court and request the appointment of counsel.

D. Retroactive Appointment of Counsel

Appointment of counsel may be made retroactive to include representation provided prior to appointment.

VI. Provision of Representational Services

A. Federal Public Defender and Private Counsel

This plan provides for representational services by the federal public defender organization and for the appointment and compensation of private counsel from a CJA Panel maintained by the court in cases authorized under the Criminal Justice Act and related statutes.

B. Administration

Administration of the CJA Panel, as set forth in this CJA Plan, is delegated to the federal public defender and the clerk of court.

C. Apportionment of Cases

Where practical and cost effective, private attorneys from the CJA Panel will be appointed in a substantial proportion of the cases in which the accused is determined to be financially eligible for representation under the Criminal Justice Act. "Substantial" will usually be defined as a minimum of twenty-five percent (25%) of the annual CJA appointments.

D. Number of Counsel

More than one attorney may be appointed in any case determined by the court to be extremely difficult.

E. Capital Cases

Procedures for appointment of counsel in cases where the defendant is charged with a crime that may be punishable by death, or is seeking to vacate or set aside a death sentence in proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2254, or § 2255, are set forth in section XIV of this CJA Plan.

VII. Federal Public Defender Organization

A. Establishment

The Federal Public Defender for the Northern District of Florida is established in this district under the Criminal Justice Act and is responsible for rendering defense services on appointment throughout the district.

B. Standards

The federal public defender organization must provide high quality representation consistent with the best practices of the legal profession and commensurate with those services rendered when counsel is privately retained. See Polk County v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 318 (1981) (“Once a lawyer has undertaken the representation of an accused, the duties and obligations are the same whether the lawyer is privately retained, appointed, or serving in a legal aid or defender program.” (quoting ABA Standards for Criminal Justice section 4-3.9(2d ed. 1980))).

C. Workload

The federal public defender organization will continually monitor the workloads of its staff to ensure high quality representation for all clients.

D. Professional Conduct

The federal public defender organization must conform to the highest standards of professional conduct, including, but not limited to, the American Bar Association’s Model Rules of Professional Conduct, Code of Conduct for Federal Public Defender Employees, and The Florida Bar Rules of Professional Conduct.

E. Private Practice of Law

Neither the federal public defender, nor any defender employee, may engage in the private practice of law, except as authorized by the Code of Conduct for Federal Public Defender Employees.

F. Supervision of Defender Organization

The federal public defender will be responsible for the supervision and management of the federal public defender organization. Accordingly, the federal public defender will be appointed in all cases assigned to that organization for subsequent assignment to staff attorneys at the discretion of the federal public defender.

G. Training

The federal public defender will assess the training needs of federal public defender staff and in coordination with the CJA Panel Attorney District Representative, the training needs of the local panel attorneys, and provide training opportunities and other educational resources.

VIII. CJA Panel of Private Attorneys

A. Establishment of the CJA Panel Committee

1. The judges of the court have created a standing committee (CJA Committee) to oversee the CJA Panel. The CJA Committee is and will continue to consist of the federal public defender, or his or her representative; the clerk of court, or his or her representative; the CJA Panel Attorney District Representative; and three other attorneys who are engaged in the private practice of law and have been appointed by the chief judge. To the extent possible, private attorneys appointed to serve on the CJA Committee should represent different divisions of the court. Each member of the CJA Committee, except the clerk of court, is a voting member and must possess sufficient experience and interest in the federal criminal justice system to administer the CJA Panel.

2. Membership Term

a. The federal public defender, or his or her representative; the clerk of court, or his or her representative; and the district's Panel Attorney District Representative are permanent members of the CJA Committee.

- b. Membership of all other CJA Committee members will be for a term of three years.
 - i. Members may be extended for an additional three year term.
 - ii. Members terms will be staggered to ensure continuity on the CJA Committee.
 - iii. Initial members of the CJA Committee, will be appointed to serve for a term of one, two, or three years. Upon the expiration of the one, two, or three-year term, the initial CJA Committee members will be eligible for reappointment to one additional three-year term.
3. The CJA Committee will meet at least twice a year and at any time the court asks the committee to consider an issue.

B. Duties of the CJA Committee

1. Membership

Examine the qualifications of applicants for membership on the CJA Panel and recommend to the chief judge the approval of those attorneys who are deemed qualified and the rejection of those attorneys deemed unqualified.

2. Recruitment

Engage in recruitment efforts to establish a diverse panel and ensure that all qualified attorneys are encouraged to participate in the furnishing of representation in CJA cases.

3. Annual Report

Review the operation and administration of the CJA Panel over the preceding year, and recommend any necessary or appropriate changes to the chief judge concerning:

- a. the size of the CJA Panel;
- b. the recruitment of qualified and diverse attorneys as required and set forth in this plan; and,
- c. recurring issues or difficulties encountered by members of the CJA Panel or their clients.

4. Removal

Recommend to the chief judge the removal of any member of the CJA Panel who:

- a. fails to satisfactorily fulfill the requirements of CJA Panel membership during their term of service, including the failure to provide high quality representation to CJA clients, or
- b. has engaged in other conduct such that his or her continued service on the CJA Panel is inappropriate.

See also Section IX.C.7

5. Training

Assist the federal public defender office in providing training for the CJA Panel on substantive and procedural legal matters affecting representation of CJA clients.

6. Mentoring

The CJA Committee will administer a mentoring program designed to identify and help prepare viable candidates to qualify for consideration for appointment to the CJA Panel. Experienced members of the criminal defense bar who have practiced extensively in federal court will be selected to serve as mentors.

IX. Establishment of the CJA Panel

A. Approval of CJA Panel

The existing, previously established, panel of attorneys who are eligible and willing to be appointed to provide representation under the Criminal Justice Act is recognized.

B. Size of the CJA Panel

1. The size of the CJA Panel will be determined by the CJA Committee based on the caseload and activity of the panel members, subject to review by the court.
2. The CJA Panel must be large enough to provide a sufficient number of experienced attorneys to handle the CJA caseload, yet small enough so that members of the CJA Panel receive an adequate number of appointments to maintain their proficiency in federal criminal defense work enabling them to provide high quality representation consistent with the best practices of the legal profession and commensurate with those services rendered when counsel is privately retained.

C. Qualifications and Membership on the CJA Panel

1. Application

Application forms for membership on the CJA Panel are available from the federal public defender and the clerk of court.

2. Equal Opportunity

All qualified attorneys are encouraged to participate in the furnishing of representation in CJA cases.

3. Eligibility

- a. Applicants for the CJA Panel must be members in good standing of the federal bar of this district, The Florida Bar, and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.
- b. Applicants must maintain a primary, satellite, or shared office in the Northern District of Florida.
- c. Applicants must possess strong litigation skills and demonstrate proficiency with the federal sentencing guidelines, federal sentencing procedures, the Bail Reform Act, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Federal Rules of Evidence.
- d. Applicants must have significant experience representing persons charged with serious criminal offenses and demonstrate a commitment to the defense of people who lack financial means to hire an attorney.
- e. Attorneys who do not possess the experience set forth above, but believe they have equivalent other experience, are encouraged to apply and set forth in writing the details of that experience for the CJA Committee's consideration.

4. Appointment to the CJA Panel

After considering the recommendations of the CJA Committee, the chief judge will appoint or reappoint attorneys to the CJA Panel. Due to the highly complex and demanding nature of capital and habeas corpus cases, special procedures will be followed for the eligibility and appointment of counsel in such cases.

5. Terms of CJA Panel Members

To establish staggered CJA Panel membership terms, the current CJA Panel will be divided into three groups, equal in number. Initially, members will be assigned to one of the three groups on a random basis. Members of the first group will continue to serve on the CJA Panel for a term of one year, members of the second group will continue to serve on the CJA Panel for a term of two years, and members of the third group will continue to serve on the CJA Panel for a term of three years. Thereafter, attorneys admitted to membership on the CJA Panel will each serve for a term of three years, subject to the reappointment procedures set forth in this plan.

6. Reappointment of CJA Panel Members

- a. The clerk of court will notify members of the CJA Panel, prior to the expiration of their current term, of the need to apply for reappointment to the CJA Panel.
- b. A member of the CJA Panel who wishes to be considered for reappointment must apply for appointment to an additional term at least three months prior to the expiration of his or her term.
- c. The CJA Committee will solicit input concerning the quality of representation provided by lawyers seeking reappointment.
- d. The CJA Committee also will consider how many cases the CJA Panel member has accepted and declined during the review period, whether the member has participated in training opportunities, whether the member has been the subject of any complaints, and whether the member continues to meet the prerequisites and obligations of CJA Panel members, as set forth in this plan.

7. Removal from the CJA Panel

- a. Mandatory Removal

Any member of the CJA Panel who is suspended or disbarred from the practice of law by any state court before whom such member is admitted, or who is suspended or disbarred from this court or any federal court, will be removed from the CJA Panel immediately.

b. Automatic Disciplinary Review

The CJA Committee will conduct an automatic disciplinary review of any CJA Panel member against whom any licensing authority, grievance committee, or administrative body has taken action, or when a finding of probable cause, contempt, sanction, or reprimand has been issued against the panel member by any state or federal court.

c. Complaints

i. Initiation

A complaint against a panel member may be initiated by the CJA Committee, a judge, another panel member, a defendant, or a member of the federal public defender's office. A complaint need not follow any particular form, but it must be in writing and state the alleged deficiency with specificity. Any complaint should be directed to the CJA Committee, which will determine whether further investigation is necessary.

ii. Notice

When conducting an investigation, the CJA Committee will notify the CJA Panel member of the specific allegations.

iii. Response

A CJA Panel member subject to investigation may respond in writing and appear, if so directed, before the CJA Committee or a subcommittee thereof.

iv. Protective Action

Prior to disposition of any complaint, the CJA Committee may recommend temporary suspension or removal of the panel member from any pending case, or from the panel, and may take any other protective action that is in the best interest of the client or the administration of the CJA Plan.

v. Review and Recommendation

After investigation, the CJA Committee may recommend dismissing the complaint or recommend appropriate remedial action, including removing the attorney from the panel, limiting the attorney's participation to particular types or categories of cases, directing the attorney to complete specific Continuing Legal Education (CLE) requirements before receiving further panel appointments, limiting the attorney's participation to handling cases that are directly supervised or overseen by another CJA Panel member or other experienced practitioner, or any other appropriate remedial action.

vi. Final Disposition by the Court

The CJA Committee will forward its recommendation to the chief judge for consideration and final disposition.

vii. Confidentiality

Unless otherwise directed by the court, any information acquired concerning any possible disciplinary action, including any complaint and any related proceeding, will be confidential.

viii. Property Interest

None of the procedures within this CJA Plan create a property interest in being on or remaining on the CJA Panel.

d. Notification

The federal public defender will be immediately notified when any member of the CJA Panel is removed or suspended.

X. CJA Panel Attorney Appointment in Non-Capital Cases

A. Appointment List

The clerk of court will maintain a current list of all attorneys included on the CJA Panel, with current office addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers, as well as a statement of qualifications and experience.

B. Appointment Procedures

1. The federal public defender is responsible for overseeing the appointment of cases to panel attorneys. The federal public defender will maintain a record of panel attorney appointments and, when appropriate, data reflecting the apportionment of appointments between attorneys from the federal public defender office and panel attorneys. The record of panel attorney appointments will be provided to the court biennially.
2. Appointment of cases to CJA Panel members will ordinarily be made on a rotational basis. In a complex or otherwise difficult case, the court may appoint counsel outside of the normal rotation to ensure the defendant has sufficiently experienced counsel.
3. Under special circumstances, the court may appoint a member of the bar of the court who is not a member of the CJA Panel. Such special circumstances may include cases in which the court determines that the appointment of a particular attorney is in the interest of justice, judicial economy, or continuity of representation, or for any other compelling reason. It is not anticipated that special circumstances will arise often, and the procedures set forth in this CJA Plan are presumed to be sufficient in the vast majority of cases in which counsel are to be appointed. Appointments made under this section will be reported to the CJA Committee.
4. Unless otherwise impracticable, CJA Panel members must be available to represent defendant(s) at the same stage of the proceedings as is the federal public defender.

XI. Duties of CJA Panel Members

A. Standards of Professional Conduct

1. CJA Panel members must provide high quality representation consistent with the best practices of the legal profession and commensurate with those services rendered when counsel is privately retained. See Polk County v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 318 (1981) (“Once a lawyer has undertaken the representation of an accused, the duties and obligations are the same whether the lawyer is privately retained, appointed, or serving in a legal aid or defender program.” (quoting ABA Standards for Criminal Justice section 4-3.9 (2d ed. 1980))).

2. Attorneys appointed under the Criminal Justice Act must conform to the highest standards of professional conduct, including but not limited to the American Bar Association’s Model Rules of Professional Conduct and The Florida Bar Rules of Professional Conduct.
3. CJA Panel members must notify within 30 days the chair of the CJA Committee when any licensing authority, grievance committee, or administrative body has taken action against them, or when a finding of contempt, sanction, or reprimand has been issued against the panel member by any state or federal court.

B. Training and Continuing Legal Education

1. Attorneys on the CJA Panel are expected to remain current with developments in federal criminal defense law, practice, and procedure, including the Recommendation for Electronically Stored Information (ESI) Discovery Production in Federal Criminal Cases.
2. Attorneys on the CJA Panel are expected to attend trainings sponsored by the federal public defender or other training opportunities that address the practice of federal criminal defense and that are approved by the federal public defender.
3. Attorneys on the CJA Panel will be guided in their practice by the Federal Adaptation of the National Legal Aid and Defender Association Performance Guidelines for Criminal Defense Representation.
4. CJA Panel members must attend eight (8) continuing legal education hours relevant to federal criminal practice annually.
5. Failure to comply with these training and legal education requirements may be grounds for removal from the CJA Panel.

C. Facilities and Technology Requirements

1. CJA Panel attorneys must have facilities, resources, and technological capability to effectively and efficiently manage assigned cases.
2. CJA Panel attorneys must comply with the requirements of electronic filing and e-Voucher.
3. CJA Panel attorneys must know and abide by procedures related to requests for investigative, expert, and other services.

D. Continuing Representation

1. Once counsel is appointed under the Criminal Justice Act, counsel will continue the representation until the matter, including appeals (unless provided otherwise by the CJA Plan for the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit) or review by certiorari, is closed; until substitute counsel has filed a notice of appearance; until an order is entered allowing or requiring the person represented to proceed pro se; or until the appointment is terminated by court order.
2. While there may be benefits to maintaining continuity of counsel, in some cases counsel may not have the requisite skills to proceed as appellate counsel. There should be deference to the position of trial counsel regarding whether, in each matter, continuity is in the best interests of the client and consistent with counsel's professional skills and obligations.

E. Miscellaneous

1. Case Budgeting

In non-capital representation of unusual complexity that is likely to become extraordinary in terms of cost, the court may require development of a case budget consistent with the Guide, Vol. 7A, Ch. 2, §§230.26.10-20.

2. No Receipt of Other Payment

Appointed counsel may not require, request, or accept any payment or promise of payment or any other valuable consideration for representation under the Criminal Justice Act, unless such payment is approved by order of the court.

3. Redetermination of Need

If, at any time after appointment, counsel has reason to believe that a party is financially able to obtain counsel, or make partial payment for counsel, and the source of counsel's information is not protected as a privileged communication, counsel will advise the court.

XII. Compensation of CJA Panel Attorneys

A. Policy of the Court Regarding Compensation

Providing fair compensation to appointed counsel is a critical component of the administration of justice. CJA Panel attorneys must be compensated for time expended in court and time reasonably expended out of court, and reimbursed for expenses reasonably incurred.

B. Payment Procedures

1. Claims for compensation must be submitted on the appropriate CJA form through the court's e-Voucher system.
2. Claims for compensation should be submitted no later than 45 days after final disposition of the case, unless good cause is shown.
3. Appropriate court staff will review the claim for mathematical and technical accuracy and for conformity with the Guide, Vol. 7A, and, if correct, will forward the claim for consideration and action by the presiding judge. The court may refer the voucher to the federal public defender for a review of the reasonableness of the claim.
4. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the court should act on Criminal Justice Act compensation claims within thirty (30) days of submission, and vouchers should not be delayed or reduced for the purpose of diminishing Defender Services national or local program costs in response to adverse financial circumstances.
5. Except in cases involving mathematical corrections:
 - a. counsel will be notified of any potential voucher reduction and will be given the opportunity to provide information or documentation relevant to the voucher and the concerns raised by the court, and

- b. no claim for compensation submitted for services provided under the Criminal Justice Act will be reduced without affording counsel notice and the opportunity to be heard.

See also Section XII.B.6

6. Notwithstanding the procedure described above, the court or the federal public defender may, in the first instance, contact appointed counsel to inquire regarding questions or concerns with a claim for compensation.

XIII. Investigative, Expert, and Other Services

A. Financial Eligibility

1. Counsel for a person who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary for an adequate defense may request such services in an ex parte application to the court, as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(e)(1), regardless of whether counsel is appointed under the Criminal Justice Act. Upon finding that the services are necessary, and that the person is financially unable to obtain them, the court must authorize counsel to obtain the services.
2. The court may choose to have applications for investigative, expert, and other services considered by a non-presiding judge to help ensure appointed counsel's ability to obtain the necessary resources in a manner that does not unreasonably compromise or interfere with the exercise of sound independent professional judgment.

B. Applications

Requests for authorization of funds for investigative, expert, and other services must be submitted in an ex parte application to the court (using the court's e-Voucher program) and must not be disclosed except with the consent of the person represented or as required by law or policy enacted by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

C. Compliance

Counsel must comply with the policies of the Judicial Conference of the United States, as set forth in the Guide, Vol. 7A, Ch. 3.

XIV. Appointment of Counsel and Case Management in CJA Capital Cases

A. Applicable Legal Authority

The appointment and compensation of counsel in capital cases and the authorization and payment of persons providing investigative, expert, and other services are governed by 18 U.S.C. §§ 3005, 3006A, and 3599

B. General Applicability and Appointment of Counsel Requirements

1. Unless otherwise specified, the provisions set forth in this section apply to all capital proceedings in federal courts, whether those matters originated in a district court (federal capital trials) or in a state court (habeas proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2254). Such matters include those in which the death penalty may be or is being sought by the prosecution, motions for a new trial, direct appeal applications for a writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court, all post-conviction proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 or § 2255 seeking to vacate or set aside a death sentence, applications for stays of execution, competency proceedings, proceedings for executive or other clemency, and other appropriate motions and proceedings.
2. Any person charged with a crime that may be punishable by death who is or becomes financially unable to obtain representation is entitled to the assistance of appointed counsel throughout every stage of available judicial proceedings, including pretrial proceedings, trial, sentencing, motions for new trial, appeals, applications for stays of executions and other appropriate motions and procedures, competency proceedings, and proceedings for executive or other clemency as may be available to the defendant. See 18 U.S. C. § 3599(e).
3. Qualified counsel must be appointed in capital cases at the earliest possible opportunity.
4. Given the complex and demanding nature of capital cases, where appropriate, the court will utilize the expert services available through the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AO), Defender Services Death Penalty Resource Counsel projects (Resource Counsel projects) which include:

- a. Federal Death Penalty Resource Counsel and Capital Resource Counsel projects (for federal capital trials);
- b. Federal Capital Appellate Resource Counsel project;
- c. Federal Capital Habeas § 2255 project; and,
- d. National and Regional Habeas Assistance and Training Counsel projects (§ 2254).

These counsels are comprised of death penalty experts who may be relied upon by the court for assistance with selection and appointment of counsel, case budgeting, and legal, practical, and other matters arising in federal capital cases.

5. The federal public defender should promptly notify and consult with the appropriate Resource Counsel projects about potential and actual federal capital trial, appellate, and habeas corpus cases, and consider their recommendations for appointment of counsel.
6. The presiding judge may appoint an attorney furnished by a state or local public defender organization or legal aid agency or other private, non-profit organization to represent a person charged with a capital crime or seeking federal death penalty habeas corpus relief provided that the attorney is fully qualified. Such appointments may be in place of, or in addition to, the appointment of a federal defender organization, a CJA Panel attorney, or an attorney appointed pro hac vice. See 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a)(3).
7. All attorneys appointed in federal capital cases must be well qualified, by virtue of their training, commitment, and distinguished prior capital defense experience at the relevant stage of the proceeding, to serve as counsel in this highly specialized and demanding litigation.
8. All attorneys appointed in federal capital cases must have sufficient time and resources to devote to the representation, taking into account their current caseloads and the extraordinary demands of federal capital cases.
9. All attorneys appointed in federal capital cases should comply with the American Bar Association's 2003 Guidelines for the Appointment and Performance of Defense Counsel in Death Penalty Cases (Guidelines 1.1 and 10.2, et seq.) and the 2008 Supplementary Guidelines for the Mitigation Function of Defense Teams in Death Penalty Cases.

10. All attorneys appointed in federal capital cases should consult regularly with the appropriate Resource Counsel projects.
11. Questions about the appointment and compensation of counsel and the authorization and payment of investigative, expert, and other service providers in federal capital cases should be directed to the AO Defender Services Office, Legal and Policy Division Duty Attorney at 202-502-3030 or via email at ods.lpb@ao.uscourts.gov.

C. Appointment of Trial Counsel in Federal Death-Eligible Cases

1. General Requirements
 - a. Appointment of qualified capital trial counsel must occur no later than when a defendant is charged with a federal criminal offense where the penalty of death is possible. See 18 U.S.C. § 3005.
 - b. To protect the rights of an individual who, although uncharged, is the subject of an investigation in a federal death-eligible case, the court may appoint capitally-qualified counsel upon request, consistent with Sections XIV(C)1-3, of this plan.
 - c. At the outset of every capital case, the court must appoint two (2) attorneys, at least one of whom meets the qualifications of “learned counsel” as described below. If necessary for adequate representation, more than two attorneys may be appointed to represent a defendant in a capital case. See 18 U.S.C. § 3005.
 - d. When appointing counsel, the judge must consider the recommendation of the federal public defender, who will consult with the Federal Death Penalty Resource Counsel to recommend qualified counsel.
 - e. To effectuate the intent of 18 U.S.C. § 3005 that the federal public defender’s recommendation be provided to the court, the judge should ensure the federal public defender has been notified of the need to appoint capital-qualified counsel.

- f. Reliance on a list for appointment of capital counsel is not recommended because selection of trial counsel should account for the particular needs of the case and the defendant, and be based on individualized recommendations from the federal public defender in conjunction with the Federal Death Penalty Resource Counsel and Capital Resource Counsel projects.
 - g. Out-of-district counsel, including federal defender organization staff, who possess the requisite expertise may be considered for appointment in capital trials to achieve high quality representation and cost or other efficiencies.
 - h. In evaluating the qualifications of proposed trial counsel, consideration should be given to their commitment to the defense of capital cases, current caseload including other capital cases, and willingness to effectively represent the interests of the client.
2. Qualifications of Learned Counsel
- a. Learned counsel must either be a member of this district's bar or be eligible for admission pro hac vice based on his or her qualifications. Appointment of counsel from outside the jurisdiction is common in federal capital cases to achieve cost and other efficiencies together with high quality representation.
 - b. Learned counsel must meet the minimum experience standards set forth in 18 U.S.C. §§ 3005 and 3599.
 - c. Learned counsel should have distinguished prior experience in the trial, appeal, or post-conviction review that, in combination with co-counsel, will assure high quality representation.
 - d. "Distinguished prior experience" contemplates excellence, not simply prior experience. Counsel with distinguished prior experience should be appointed even if meeting this standard requires appointing counsel from outside the district where the matter arises.

- e. The suitability of learned counsel should be assessed with respect to the particular demands of the case, the stage of the litigation, and the defendant.
 - f. Learned counsel must be willing and able to adjust other caseload demands to accommodate the extraordinary time required by capital representation.
 - g. Learned counsel should satisfy the qualification standards endorsed by bar associations and other legal organizations regarding the quality of representation in capital cases.
3. Qualifications of Second and Additional Counsel
- a. Second and additional counsel may, but are not required to, satisfy the qualifications for learned counsel, as set forth above.
 - b. Second and additional counsel must be well qualified, by virtue of their distinguished prior criminal defense experience, training, and commitment, to serve as counsel in this highly specialized and demanding litigation.
 - c. Second and additional counsel must be willing and able to adjust their caseload demands to accommodate the extraordinary time required by capital representation.
 - d. The suitability of second and additional counsel should be assessed with respect to the demands of the individual case, the state of the litigation, and the defendant.

D. Appointment and Qualifications of Direct Appeal Counsel in Federal Death Penalty Cases

1. When appointing appellate counsel, the judge must consider the recommendation of the federal public defender, who will consult with Federal Capital Appellate Resource Council to recommend qualified counsel.

2. Counsel appointed to represent a death-sentenced federal appellant should include at least one attorney who did not represent the appellant at trial.
 3. Each trial counsel who withdraws should be replaced with similarly qualified counsel to represent the defendant on appeal.
 4. Out-of-district counsel, including federal defender organization staff, who possess the requisite expertise may be considered for appointment in capital appeals to achieve high quality representation as well as cost or other efficiencies.
 5. Appellate counsel, between them, should have distinguished prior experience in federal criminal appeals and capital appeals.
 6. At least one of the attorneys appointed as appellate counsel must have the requisite background, knowledge, and experience required by 18 U.S.C. § 3599(c) or (d).
 7. In evaluating the qualifications of proposed appellate counsel, consideration should be given to the qualification standards endorsed by bar associations and other legal organizations regarding the quality of legal representation in capital cases.
 8. In evaluating the qualifications of proposed appellate counsel, consideration should be given to their commitment to the defense of capital cases, their current caseload including other capital cases, and their willingness to effectively represent the interests of the client.
- E. Appointment and Qualifications of Post-Conviction Counsel in Federal Death Penalty Cases (28 U.S.C. § 2255)
1. A financially eligible person seeking to vacate or set aside a death sentence in proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 is entitled to appointment of fully qualified counsel. See 18 U.S.C. § 3599(a)(2).
 2. Due to the complex, demanding, and protracted nature of death penalty proceedings, the court should consider appointing at least two attorneys.
 3. In light of the accelerated timeline applicable to capital § 2255 proceedings, prompt appointment of counsel is essential. Whenever possible, appointment should take place prior to the denial of certiorari on direct appeal by the United States Supreme Court.

4. When appointing counsel in a capital case filed in a § 2255 matter, the court should consider the recommendation of the federal public defender, who will consult with the Federal Capital Habeas § 2255 Counsel.
 5. Out-of-district counsel, including federal defender organization staff, who possess the requisite expertise may be considered for appointment in capital § 2255 cases to achieve high quality representation as well as cost or other efficiencies.
 6. Counsel in § 2255 cases should have distinguished prior experience in the area of federal post-conviction proceedings and in capital post-conviction proceedings.
 7. When possible, post-conviction counsel should have distinguished experience in capital § 2255 representations.
 8. In evaluating the qualifications of proposed post-conviction counsel, consideration should be given to the qualification standards endorsed by bar associations and other legal organizations regarding the quality of legal representation in capital cases.
 9. In evaluating the qualifications of proposed post-conviction § 2255 counsel, consideration should be given to their commitment to the defense of capital cases, their current caseload including other capital cases, and their willingness to effectively represent the interests of the client.
- F. Appointment and Qualifications of Counsel in Federal Capital Habeas Corpus Proceedings (28 U.S.C. § 2254)
1. A financially eligible person seeking to vacate or set aside a death sentence in proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 is entitled to the appointment of qualified counsel. See 18 U.S.C. § 3599(a)(2).
 2. Due to the complex, demanding, and protracted nature of death penalty proceedings, the court should consider appointing at least two attorneys.

3. When appointing counsel in a capital § 2254 matter, the appointing authority should consider the recommendation of the federal public defender who will consult with the National or Regional Habeas Assistance and Training Counsels. The federal public defender's recommendation may be to appoint this district's Capital Habeas Unit (CHU), a CHU from another district, or other counsel who qualify for appointment under 18 U.S.C. § 3599 and this CJA Plan, or any combination of the foregoing that is deemed appropriate under the circumstances.
4. Out-of-district counsel, including federal defender organization staff, who possess the requisite expertise may be considered for appointment in capital § 2254 cases to achieve cost and other efficiencies together with high quality representation.
5. In order for federal counsel to avail themselves of the full statute of limitations period to prepare a petition, the court should appoint counsel and provide appropriate litigation resources at the earliest possible time permissible by law.
6. Unless precluded by a conflict of interest, or replaced by similarly qualified counsel upon motion by the attorney or motion by the defendant, capital § 2254 counsel must represent the defendant throughout every subsequent stage of available judicial proceedings and all available post-conviction processes, together with applications for stays of execution and other appropriate motions and procedures, and must also represent the defendant in such competency proceedings and proceedings for executive or other clemency as may be available to the defendant. See 18 U.S.C. § 3599(e).
7. Counsel in capital § 2254 cases should have distinguished prior experience in the area of federal post-conviction proceedings and in capital post-conviction proceedings.
8. When possible, capital § 2254 counsel should have distinguished prior experience in capital § 2254 representations.

9. In evaluating the qualifications of proposed capital § 2254 counsel, consideration should be given to proposed counsel's commitment to the defense of capital cases, their current caseload including other capital cases, and their willingness to represent effectively the interests of the client.
